1. Marge Hobbs is a police officer in London. Being a police officer means she has people depending on her. It's her job to make the best decisions in difficult situations, and she must never panic. She likes to tell friends that she works part-time, full-time and all the time!

2. Twelve-year-old Kevin is an only child from a single-parent family. Before he joined Big Brothers and Sisters UK, he was often bored and lonely. Now, every Saturday and Sunday he does things with his Big Brother, Jeff. Sometimes they play football and sometimes they tell each other stories. Kevin says, 'If I had a real brother, I'd want him to be just like Jeff!'

3. Are you strong, reliable and hard-working? Do you get on well with others in a group? Do you like working with people? Can you stay calm at all times? Why not train as a fire fighter? If you have all these qualities, call us now at 0151 8976543 for more information.

4. Have you heard the story about the lion and the mouse? A lion had a thorn in his foot and it was very sore. A mouse saw the poor lion. He was very frightened of the big lion but he had to help him. After he had pulled out the thorn, the lion felt better. And the two animals became great friends!

5. Did you know that if you joined Facebook or Myspace, you would have lots of friends? You'd have friends you could chat to any time you wanted. Well, at least sometimes—they'd have to be online, of course! Maybe real friends are better, you know, the ones that you can depend on all the time.

6. I live with my best friend and I plan to live with her forever! You see, my best friend is my wife, Sue. Let me tell you the story. I met Sue at university three years ago, we get on really well with each other and we have never had a fight. We decided to get married last summer, and it's been perfect ever since!

7. Tom Jenkins is a journalist for a famous Dutch newspaper. He travels all over the world to get information for his stories and sometimes he has to go to some very scary, very dangerous places! Jenkins says, 'It's nothing. I do what I have to, to do my job right.'

Part 1 Listening

Вы услышите 6 высказываний. Установите соответствие между высказыванием каждого говорящего 1–6 и утверждениями, данными в списке A–G. Используйте каждое утверждение, обозначенное соответствующей буквой только один раз. В задании есть одно лишнее утверждение.

Speaker 1

Sure, I'm the star—it's amazing! The coolest job in the world! But it's not all about me. If it weren't for the people working in the background, I'd be nothing. There are the extras that make a scene realistic, the director who comes up with the creative ideas and, of course, the producer who's responsible for the whole project. Yes, I love my job—the money, the fame! One thing I don't like? Autographs! People giving things to me to sign: bits of paper, tickets, whatever they've got. It drives me mad!

Speaker 2

I'm in my second year at university. I needed a job that fitted in with my timetable. Being a dog-walker for a few hours a day is perfect for me. I'm outdoors all the time so I get lots of exercise! And I earn enough to pay my rent, buy food, and go out every now and then. That's all I want, really. And I don't have to depend on my parents for anything—I'm totally independent.

Speaker 3

Being a computer programmer? It's brilliant, and I'm lucky to have this job. I get good money. I have the chance to use all that technical knowledge I got at college. No, I love my job. In fact, it would be perfect except for one thing—I'm stuck in an office all day. I shouldn't complain really but I just think being inside all the time is unhealthy.

Speaker 4

I've been a builder for years. I started doing it as a summer job when I was a student and then I turned professional. Like everything, it's got good points and bad points. On the positive side, I wear what I want. Well, I have to wear boots and a helmet, of course, but no uniform. And I love doing manual labour. On the negative side? Hmm, low wages and working outdoors in the winter!

Speaker 5

If you asked me what I liked best about being a police officer, I'd have to say it's working with the public. Seriously! I love being out on the streets, meeting people, talking to them, helping them. Of course, there are some people that see the uniform and think 'Here come the bad guys' but not everyone feels that way. One thing I hate about my job is typing out reports and letters, you know, 'paper pushing' as we call it. It has to be done, but time really goes by slowly!

My dream came true the day I got this job! I work for the best fashion design company in the world! I get to meet famous people and I live in Paris! Everybody should be as happy as I am in my job. And you know something? It's not about the money—although it's great! No, it's about using my ideas and my imagination to make something that is totally mine!
